

MAIN THEMES OF REGIONAL SCIENCE CONSIDERED IN AISRE'S ANNUAL SCIENTIFIC CONFERENCES

A. Governance, regional and territorial public policies, European programming

- A.01. Governance, planning, evaluation of plans and programs; European programming
- A.02. Institutions, public services and territorial finance
- A.03. International relations, policies and cooperation

B. Growth and regional disparities

- B.04. Regional and urban growth and development
- B.05. Internal areas, high lands and rural development

C. Globalization, value chains and local production systems

- C.06. Companies, productive systems and regional industrial policies

D. Methods of territorial analysis and spatial econometrics

- D.07. Methods and models of territorial analysis and spatial econometrics
- D.08. Didactics and disciplines of regional sciences

E. Labor, welfare, personal services and social policies

- E.09. Regional labor markets, demography, immigration
- E.10. Welfare, inequality, personal services and social policies
- E.11. Education, training and employment

F. Tourism, culture and local development

- F.12. Culture, tourism and territorial marketing
- F.13. Creativity, cultural districts and tourism policy

G. Urban planning, real estate market and city development processes

- G.14. Urban transformations and the real estate market

H. Infrastructure, transport and local development

- H.15. Infrastructures, accessibility and network services
- H.16. Urban mobility and transport at the interregional and European scale
- H.17. Logistics and transport of goods

I. Wellbeing, sustainability and local development

- I.18. Sustainable development and green economy
- I.19. Indicators of wealth, social capital and local development

L. Urban development and agglomeration economies

- L.20. Urbanization, development processes and territorial planning
- L.21. The urban and social redevelopment of periphery areas

M. development and local entrepreneurship

- M.22. Business services and regional development

N. Innovation, creativity and local development

- N.23. Knowledge, innovation and development

O. Policy evaluation methods

- O.24. Evaluation of public policies and interventions